

APALRC Challenge Campaign

Help Us Advance the Legal and Civil Rights of Asian Americans in Greater D.C

The work of the APALRC is made possible in part through foundation grants and private contributions from law firms, and donations from individuals and groups. Recognizing the tremendous work of the APALRC, John C. Yang – a longtime community activist and partner in the Washington, DC firm of Wiley Rein & Fielding LLP – has challenged the organization and its supporters to match his contribution of $75,000 over three years. His wish is for the APALRC to mobilize individual supporters and to create a culture of philanthropy. To meet this challenge, we have launched the APALRC Challenge Campaign.

Your Contribution to the APALRC Challenge Campaign Will Make a Difference!
